WISHEE: That's great! You've really cheered me up because I've been feeling a bit sad lately... I've been feeling sadder than that! I'm sad because I lost my job at the orange juice factory...I couldn't concentrate. But it's ok because it gives me loads of time at home, all on my own to practice my escapology...I need to get out more. I went spent all my pocket money on a present for Princess Jasmine! Would you like to see it?

WISHEE: Ta dah! What do you mean 'what is it?' It's a plum tree! I heard the Princess loves plums so I got her a whole tree. I'm going to leave it over here for safe keeping and if anyone goes near it I want you all to shout "WISHEE!" can you do that? Let's have a practice.
